

JUMP THE BROOK

Divide the kids into 6 groups. The brook consists of two parallel jump ropes on the ground about two feet apart. The entire group runs and attempts to jump over the brook, one after another. New lines for a wider brook are drawn after each jump, and the game continues by making the brook wider for each succeeding jump until only a few kids are left.